Benefiting the Children of the William Penn School District

March 2021

Dear Class of 2021:

The Penn Wood Foundation is proud to announce the availability of the Penn Wood Foundation Julian V. Falana Business Scholarship.

Given by Julian Falana, a business teacher at Penn Wood High School. This scholarship is presented to a graduating senior who has taken both Business Law and Entrepreneurship, and has achieved an 80 average or higher in each course. The scholarship recipient will receive $500. In addition to academic success, this senior has a positive vision of the WPSD education experience and demonstrates an eagerness to "Pay It Forward" through future help with growing this scholarship. The graduating senior demonstrates commitment to using the scholarship to pursue continued education in business and/or towards the use of implementing a business plan that they have submitted in class. The business plan will also need to be submitted to the Penn Wood Foundation.

Applicants must submit an essay answering the following:

- Based on your experience within the William Penn School District and taking into consideration your personal and educational goals, how would you envision yourself helping a student in a similar position in 5-10 years? What programs would you implement? What initiatives would you support? How would you get involved to help students achieve their goals and succeed?

Essays must be 1 to 3 pages in length typed in Times New Roman Font, 12 pt, double spaced, 1 inch margin, top, bottom, left and right. Please proofread your essay carefully.

Submissions are due by Friday, May 14 and can be made via email to info@PennWoodFoundation.org or U.S. Mail to: c/o President, Penn Wood Foundation, 100 Green Avenue, Lansdowne 19050.

Scholarship recipients will be announced at the June 2021 Commencement Ceremony.

Sincerely,

Deandra Taylor
President
Penn Wood Foundation
