Benefiting the Children of the William Penn School District

March 2021

Dear Class of 2021:

The Penn Wood Foundation is proud to announce the availability of the Penn Wood Foundation Vito C. Macri Memorial Scholarship and the Penn Wood Foundation Thomas and Jane Clark Memorial Scholarship.

- The Penn Wood Foundation Vito C. Macri Memorial Scholarship is being funded by the Macri Family. This scholarship is being awarded to a graduating senior who demonstrates the following characteristics: hard-working, ability to overcome hardship, helpful to family and friends, and is pursuing continued education in any trade, photography or technology. The scholarship recipient will receive $1,000 for higher education expenses and access to the Macri family's life experiences, education, armed services background and professional connections to provide mentoring, if the recipient so chooses.
- The Penn Wood Foundation Thomas and Jane Clark Memorial Scholarship is being funded by Domenick Macri who was a close friend of Thomas and Jane Clark. Mr. Macri credits Tom and Jane with pushing him to think beyond his station in life, abilities and set higher expectations for himself while providing encouragement and support throughout his educational journey. The scholarship recipient will receive $500 for higher education expenses and access to Mr. Macri's life experience, education, work experience and professional connections to provide mentoring, if the recipient so chooses.

Applicants must submit an essay answering the following:

- Based on your experience within the William Penn School District and taking into consideration your personal and educational goals, how would you envision yourself helping a student in a similar position in 5-10 years? What programs would you implement? What initiatives would you support? How would you get involved to help students achieve their goals and succeed?

Essays must be 1 to 3 pages in length typed in Times New Roman Font, 12 pt, double spaced, 1 inch margin, top, bottom, left and right. Please proofread your essay carefully.

Submissions are due by Friday, May 14 and can be made via email to info@PennWoodFoundation.org or U.S. Mail to: c/o President, Penn Wood Foundation, 100 Green Avenue, Lansdowne 19050.

Scholarship recipients will be announced at the June 2021 Commencement Ceremony.

Sincerely,

The Macri Family: Lina, Tina, Rose, Rita ('90), Domenick ('95) and Giancarlo ('96)
